Challenging Misogyny Workshop

Sexual harassment is no joke. Studies show that sexual harassment has significant negative effects on those who experience it. As educational workers we must be willing to step up to challenge this form of abuse. This workshop will increase participants' awareness and understanding of sexual harassment and provide them with an opportunity to develop strategies that challenge sexual violence and harassment in their schools and workplaces.

Demonstrated Knowledge

C. Experience

Working with colleagues in a collaborative manner (Please provide examples below).

Presenting professional development (Please list below and include audience).

Other relevant information

OSSTF/FEESO values the participation of members with different voices from lived experiences. We recognize that the selection of candidates for Federation positions from members of equity-seeking groups is an asset. Self-identification of membership in equity-seeking group(s) is voluntary. If you choose to self-identify, please complete the attached Self ID form.
